Student Grade _____

Nauset Regional High School publishes an online student produced newspaper as part of a journalism class. It is hosted by a state organization for high school newspapers and administrative approval is obtained before anything goes online. The newspaper will include interviews, photographs, student works, sports reports, video and coverage of many Nauset High School student events.

We are seeking your permission to allow your student's name, photograph and/or descriptive information to appear in this publication. Please indicate your agreement by choosing an option on each line below.
